

Place of work

Department of Geosciences and Natural Resource Management, (IGN)
Copenhagen University

Øster Voldgade 10

DK 1350 København K

Phone: +45 353 22564 (direct), 3532 2500 (secretary)

E-mail: agb@ign.ku.dk

Personal data and academic degrees

Female, born 1967, married, one child

PhD i Agronomy, Countryside Planning, The Royal Veterinary and Agricultural University (LIFE), 2004

Cand. agro, The Royal Veterinary and Agricultural University (LIFE), 1997

Current and most recent academic employments

Associate Professor, Section of Geography, IGN, UCPH 2008-

Assistant Professor, Section of Geography, IGN, UCPH 2004-2008

Visiting scholar at Australian National University August-December 2011

Maternity leave: January 2011 – July 2011

Professional activities

Mentor for early career female researchers at UCPH 2012-

Member and coordinator of workshops in a national network on multifunctional landscapes 2004-

Board member of the environmental council, 2003-2006

Graduate and post graduate supervision

On average 6 Master students

Several Post.docs and PhD students

Current research areas

Climate change adaptation and integrated water management: new challenges for public and private actors
Policy analyses with a focus on integration of nature and environmental concerns in agricultural policies

Temporary urban activities and their potential long-lasting impacts

Urbanisation processes in peri-urban areas

Current teaching activities

Human adaptation to climate changes - processes and actors

Planning processes in rural and urban contexts

Cultural landscapes- characteristics, challenges and regulation